

Atlanta's First Eight Black Police Officers

The history of Atlanta's first eight black police officers is examined in this collection of resources from the viewpoints of many sources, including print publications and audiovisuals. In general, this listing provides un-bias information about historical events, people, occasions, and celebrations through works of nonfiction, fiction and biographies. This list is merely an introduction to sources in the Auburn Avenue Research Library's (AARL) collection that are relevant to the subject matter, and it is in no way intended to be an exhaustive list of the collection's topical resources.

Resources include call numbers (Call#), for patrons to easily inquire and obtain resources. Auburn Avenue Research Library (AARL) maintains non-circulating policies of its collection; however, patrons are able to utilize materials in-house. Suggested search terms and keywords are provided to further guide patron's research amongst Auburn Avenue Research Library and the Fulton County Public Library System's catalog and digital libraries. The Boolean Operators (AND, OR, also NOT) are simple words that can be used to maximize search results. Please feel free to contact AARL if assistance is needed in locating additional subject related materials and resources.
